Key People

Saint George

Saint George's Day

This day is celebrated every year on 23rd April since 1222.

St George is the patron saint of England.

His flag makes up part of the Union Jack.

He was born in Turkey

He became a roman soldier when he was 17

He was made a patron saint after defeating the French in battle

He is best known for the legendary story 'St George and the Dragon.'

How we celebrate it

Parades

Morris Dancers

Marching bands

Re-enactments of the dragon story